

SAP® SuccessFactors® Stories in People Analytics

Human Capital Management Technologies

Why People Analytics? The next generation analytics tool for SAP SuccessFactors supports better people strategies and effective decision-making. Actionable insights into your HR data helps you answer key questions about your workforce and relation to talent management. Through an easy-to-use interface, Stories in People Analytics provides widely understood HR metrics using dynamic filtering, the combination of data sets from across the SuccessFactors suite, and analyses of relevant dimensions to better help you achieve more accurate and consolidated reporting for any and all of your SuccessFactors modules.

Stories in People Analytics Dashboard

Key Business Questions Answered

- How is our headcount split by Job Family, Job Role, and Business Unit?
- How many people are currently on long-term leave and for how long?
- What is our current ratio of managerial to non-managerial staff?
- How good is the data quality for our personnel information?
- Who has logged in to the system and when?

Take advantage of having your key HR data centralized and readily available to analyze and support your decision making processes.
